Workshop Session Descriptions

10:15 a.m.-11:45 a.m. SESSION 1 CONCURRENT WORKSHOPS

A. Elementary Integration Guidance Document—Patricia Kocialski

Presentation will provide participants with an advance look at the upcoming guidance document that will outline how physical education concepts can be integrated into the math, science, social studies and ELA at Grades K-3.

Patricia Kocialski is currently the Associate for Physical Education with the New York State Education Department. She has a MSE from Central Missouri State and been in the profession as an educator and coach for over 30 years.

B. Grant Writing 101: Nuts and Bolts - Sara Anderson

This brief overview of grant development will look at the pre-award activities up to submission of a proposal.

Sara Anderson has over 20 years experience in all aspects of nonprofit management including development and grants oversight.

C. Tech Valley High School: An Integrative Approach to Physical and Health Education - April Nelson

Tech Valley High School serves as a model – in the region, the state and beyond – of innovative public education that is based in strong partnerships and focuses on educating and inspiring students to embrace the increasingly important world of math and science. Courses are taught in project-based learning environments that emphasize math, science and technologies, but also expose students to the Chinese language, art and physical education.

April Nelson teaches Health and PE at Tech Valley HS. Before joining TVHS, she taught middle school health in Schodack and led adventure education programs in Massachusetts. She holds a Bachelor of Science degree in Exercise Science and a Master of Science degree in Recreation Administration from George Williams College in Wisconsin.

D. Legal Issues - Renee James

The New York State Public High School Athletic Association is coming to provide updates and help with frequently asked questions.

1:00 p.m.- 2:30 p.m. SESSION 2 CONCURRENT WORKSHOPS

E. Building A Physical Education Program to Meet 21st Century Needs—Patricia Kocialski

This presentation will focus on re-designing a physical education program to meet the needs of 21st Century learners. Moving away from old school formats to creative ones; incorporating technology, literacy, program and student assessments. Elevating physical education in the eyes of your colleagues and school community.

Patricia Kocialski is currently the Associate for Physical Education with the New York State Education Department. She has a MSE from Central Missouri State and been in the profession as an educator and coach for over 30 years.

F. Collaborations with your Library Media Specialist Using the PE Profile—John Brock

Using the School Library Media Program Evaluation rubric and specific ways school librarians can build better, deeper, richer teaching collaborations with PE and health educators. This includes a cross-walk between the NYSED Physical Education Profile and the SLMPE rubric. This is a hands-on, interactive action oriented session looking to actively engage the PE and Health professional attendees.

John P. Brock is presently an Associate in School Library Services Curriculum, Instructional Technology (CI&IT), NYSED. Previously he was Director of the DCMO BOCES School Library System, and a School Library Media Specialist in New York and in North Carolina. He received a MLS from the Syracuse University School of Information Studies in 2000, and is presently working on an MA in School District Leadership at Stony Brook University.

G. Child Nutrition—Sandy Sheedy

This presentation will focus on the definitions of child obesity and the opportunities for impact in a school district to combat this growing trend. There are challenges and opportunities in every district, find out how to work with the other professionals in your building who are working toward the same goal.

Sandy Sheedy is currently the Coordinator for the Child Nutrition Program with the New York State Education Department.

H. Bullying Prevention in Physical Education - Jim Dillon

The presentation will focus on the important role that physical education teachers play in preventing bullying and developing an emotionally safe environment for students.

Jim Dillon has been principal of Lynnwood Elementary School for 17 years. He is the author of the book, Peaceful School Bus, a program for preventing and decreasing bullying on the school bus. He is a certified Olweus Bully Prevention trainer. He has presented at many local, state and national conferences on bully prevention, leadership and other topics. Prior to being an administrator, he was special education teacher. In 2007 he was selected as Greater Capital Region Principals' Center, Principal of the Year.
